i CAN write A Book template

I created this simple I Can Write a Book Template for students to be able to write their own complete book. This could be used as a final draft or culminating writing activity. Print out and create books ahead of time or print out as needed per student.

Book template is meant to be folded in half and includes a front/back cover and a writing page with illustration box, writing lines and page number box.

Books can be stapled or bound with a binding machine.
